

Co-Parenting Agreement - Draft

SA CoParents - A starting point for discussion
16607 Blanco #703, San Antonio, Texas 78232
210-224-1667 - mattssossi@bsossi.com

Drafted by: Alex Rivera

Generated: August 30, 2026

Mediation date: 2026-04-15

Draft for discussion - read before signing or sharing.

This document is a draft compiled from one parent's own answers. It is not a signed agreement, a court order, a legal document, or a custody recommendation. Both parents remain responsible for reviewing each clause with their own professionals before adopting anything.

Your information is private by default. SA CoParents does not share your assessment or reports with your co-parent or a professional unless you choose to share them, except where disclosure is required by law. Use of SA CoParents does not by itself create an attorney-client, therapist-patient, mediator-client, or other privileged relationship.

This draft summarises how I hope our co-parenting partnership will work for our two children, Maya (8) and Jonas (5). Every clause below is a starting proposal I want to discuss - not a demand. My focus is on keeping the children's routines stable and giving both of us the predictability we need to be present when the kids are with us.

Updates from the Previous Draft

Since the last draft I've added a shared communication protocol and moved the school-transport clause under Household Rules where it belongs. I also softened the language on holidays after our last conversation went well.

Shared Goals for Our Child

- Keep both children's school performance and after-school activities uninterrupted.
- Speak about each other with respect in front of the kids - no exceptions.
- Make big decisions (medical, educational, therapy) together, in writing.
- Protect the children's relationships with both extended families.
- Revisit this agreement every six months so it can grow with the kids.

Communication

Co-Parenting Agreement - Draft

SA CoParents - A starting point for discussion
16607 Blanco #703, San Antonio, Texas 78232
210-224-1667 - mattsossi@bsossi.com

Child Needs

Household Rules

Priority Topics to Discuss

- ? Holiday schedule 2026 ☐
- ? Extracurricular budget ☐

Open for Discussion

- Summer camp choices - I'd like Maya to try the coding camp; happy to hear alternatives.
- Whether Jonas is ready for weekday sleepovers at grandparents' this year.
- Family therapy - I've been thinking a short-course therapist could help us before big transitions.

A Note from the Draft

Thank you for reading this all the way through. This is a draft, not a verdict. I'm writing it with the assumption that we both love our kids the same way and want the same steady, boring, dependable childhood for them. Everything above is negotiable except the respect.

Co-Parenting Agreement - Draft

SA CoParents - A starting point for discussion
16607 Blanco #703, San Antonio, Texas 78232
210-224-1667 - mattsossi@bsossi.com

Parent A signature / date

Parent B signature / date

REVIEW BEFORE SHARING

Co-Parenting Agreement - Draft

SA CoParents - A starting point for discussion
16607 Blanco #703, San Antonio, Texas 78232
210-224-1667 - mattsossi@bsossi.com

HOW THIS REPORT WAS BUILT

2 rule-based sections + 3 technology-assisted sections.

- Goals / issues / priorities capture
- Communication + readiness scoring
- Executive summary paragraph
- Neutral draft agreement wording
- Personal growth plan phrasing

RULE-BASED
RULE-BASED
GENERATIVE
GENERATIVE
GENERATIVE

Rule-based sections are deterministic: the same answers always produce the same output. Generative sections are drafted with technology assistance (Claude, via a neutral, child-focused prompt). The parent who authored this report remains responsible for reviewing every part before it is shared.

REVIEW BEFORE SHARING